

Membership Report for AGM

Although during the last year we have welcomed new members the increase has not kept up with the loss in membership. At the time of the last AGM the combined membership numbers were 417, but as this report goes to print the membership is only 394.

It would be much appreciated if all members during this coming year could strive to recruit friends and neighbours to reverse the current trend in membership.

John Shorto